Comments I strongly object to the plans on the grounds

Disabled and the elderly, mothers with children will find it very difficult

Taking away our rights to free access to the stones and be able to park, Woodhenge and the land around was a campsite for people travelling down to rest and stay during the celebrations. We all pay road tax we pay for the highways. It's just another way of stopping people having access to the stones by stopping parking.

The proposed plan is not acceptable
